

Stirling & Hills Garden Club

Invite you to an informative talk about fire resistant plants by Adelaide author

Danielle Clode

Danielle is an award winning Australian author. Her writing includes natural history, essays, science-writing, historical fiction and best-selling children's books.

"With our fire risk increasing with our changing climate, the challenges of taking fire seriously and protecting ourselves is more important than ever. Living in a fire prone area myself, I know how hard it is to keep motivated to do this preparation work." Danielle will be giving an informative talk about fire resistant plants for gardeners to think about planting to prepare their homes in the event of a bushfire.
